

A report from the DeKalb County Visitors Bureau estimates 250,000 visitors attend the Festival each year. These visitors will appreciate your community involvement when they see your sponsorship support. In addition to having your business name prominently displayed at Festival events, it will also be highlighted in all Festival advertising including the Festival Souvenir Guide Book, Schedule of Events, and our website.

We are proud of our community and the participation of local non-profit organizations who benefit from their involvement with the Festival. Many of the activities that the Festival hosts are free for spectators. In making this event as economical and entertaining as we can for all ages, we depend upon the assistance of sponsors. By joining together, we can develop a plan that will benefit both your business and the local community.
